B. Reading. Read and choose the correct answer.

Yesterday afternoon John's mother was at work. John was at home with his father. They watched TV together. Then his father said: "Let's cook dinner for Mum and we can all have dinner!" And they went to the kitchen. The father wanted to have some soup but John didn't like it. They decided to have fish. The father took the fish and they started cooking it together.

Then John went to his bedroom to do his homework. His father went to his room to read a book. They didn't go to the kitchen again.

After an hour, John's mother came home. She was tired. But when she opened the door, she ran to the kitchen and cried: "Oh, no!" The kitchen was very dirty. They couldn't eat the fish because it was black! John's mother wasn't happy. John and his father were sad, too.

But then, John and his father cleaned the kitchen and cooked a pizza for dinner.

6. The symbols of London

A In London you can see red double-decker buses and have a ride on them. They are a world-famous image associated with the city. Another symbol of London is the black taxi. Normally, you cannot phone a traditional taxi. You simply have to stop one in the street.

B London is famous for some beautiful parks. In Hyde Park there is a lake, the Serpentine, where you can swim from May to September. And you can see some animals in London Zoo, which is situated in Regent's Park. Most visitors to the parks just go there to sit and relax with some food.

C British food is based on beef, chicken and fish and is generally served with potatoes and other vegetables. The most common and typical foods eaten in Britain include sandwiches, fish and chips, pies and trifle. Some of the main dishes have strange names like Toad-in-the-Hole.

D Most visitors to London want souvenirs for themselves or gifts for family and friends. You can buy bells, T-shirts, soft toys, models, magnets, pens and pencils, mouse mats, caps, pin badges and much more.

E London is famous for the plays and musicals you can see in the city's West End. There are over 100 theatres playing shows that include The Lion King, Matilda and Les Miserables.
